

taking away XM radio causes more then just chaos, It causes lack of freedom. being able to listen in to something that comforts you or Supports your beliefs, is definetly something that should not be taken away. We constantly try and try to find ways to end road rage and make our roads safer I dont think that taking away a right is the way to start!

Fight for your right to Listen!!